Find the stairs, go to the basement, and follow the corridor opposite them. Kill the lone ghost to the left of the yard and jump into the cage. Description: A large mansion filled with ghosts, eyes and carousels. Big Boo's Haunt is the fifth course. Once you collect at least 12 stars (15 in Super Mario 64 DS), enter one of the wooden doors on the left or right side of the stairs on the first floor, then follow Boo down the corridor and into the courtyard. After that, go to the far left corner and defeat the big boo there. To defeat the boos you have to land a pound of them (jump over them and hit while in the air). Then we will enter the cage to enter the Ghost of the Big Boo. Star 1: Go on ghost hunting (edit) In this level, the goal is to kill all the boos. Before you can face the ultimate big boo, you will have to kill all the small ones. First, the back of the mansion and enter the back door and kill the two boos in this room, then enter the building from the front. Next, enter the left room on the back wall and defeat Boo there. Then, go to another door on the back wall, defeat Boo there, move on to the next room and defeat Boo in that room, then return to the big master room. It takes three hits to beat Big Boo. Every time you hit it it will get smaller and faster. Once you have defeated it, the ladder will rise and lead to the first star at this level. Star 2: Ride Big Boo's Merry-Go-round (edit) After entering the course, enter the smaller building, head down the elevator, and walk through the doors to reach the Carousel. Five Boos will arrive through one of the paintings. Kick all the boos from behind to defeat them before finally fighting the big boo just like you did above. Watch out for the picture in the middle of the right wall as it shoots out of flames. Star 3: The Secret of Haunted Books enter the mansion. Go up the stairs and make the left. Enter the second door on the left wall. Avoid flying books while working to the end of the shelf. Turn right and run to the end. At the end of three books. Strike them in this order: top, right, left. The bookcase will slide open to reveal the door. Walk through the door, and there's your star. If you hit the book in the wrong order, the puzzle will reset and the book will fly off the shelf to attack. 4: Look for 8 red coins, edit) Get all 8 red coins. Look inside the house. Don't forget to go up and down. Coin 1: 1: to the main door of the house and enter it. Going inside, make a quick left to the first door. You'll see a piano in the room. Go close to the piano and he will try to attack you. When the piano moves, there will be a coin in the place where it originally was. Coins 2 and 3: Go to the door in the room you are currently in the Mad Piano room, which is visible right in front of the red coin #1.
